57. All eligible Bhutanese citizens shall have equal opportunity for employment and career advancement in the Civil Service on the basis of merit, qualification, fair and open competition without discrimination on the grounds of race, sex, language, religion, and other status.

58. The Commission shall recruit university graduates through competitive examinations conducted in accordance with the procedures laid down in the BCSR for initial appointments to Professional and Management positions in Civil Service.
59. The Druk Gyalpo shall, by warrant under His hand and seal, appoint:
- (a) Secretaries to the Government on the recommendation of the Prime Minister upon obtaining nominations from the Royal Civil Service Commission on the basis of merit and seniority and as per other relevant rules and regulations;
 - (b) The Secretary General of the respective Houses on the recommendation of the Royal Civil Service Commission; and
 - (c) Dzongdags on the recommendation of the Prime Minister upon obtaining nominations from the Royal Civil Service Commission.

Qualification

60. A candidate for the post of a Secretary to the Government or Dzongda shall have a minimum of university degree, and fulfill other conditions as may be prescribed by the BCSR.

Tenure

61. A Secretary to the Government shall be the highest position in the civil service. He/she may serve one term, which may be extended by one more term if he/she performs well or until the superannuation age, whichever is earlier, and each term shall consist of five years.

Oath of Office and Allegiance

62. A civil servant upon appointment shall take an Oath of Allegiance in such a form and manner as prescribed before a designated authority.

Appointment of Civil Servants by Agencies

63. Agencies shall, in accordance with the BCSR, make recruitment, selection and appointment against a vacant position in all categories, except for executive (EX) and specialist (ES) positions, and for appointments as provided for under section 58 of this Act.
64. A person may be appointed on contract on competitive basis to meet specialized or short-term human resource needs of an agency in accordance with the BCSR.

CHAPTER VI

REMUNERATION AND ALLOWANCE

Determination of Remuneration and Allowances

65. Salary, allowances, benefits and other emoluments of the civil servants shall be determined by the Royal Government as per the Constitution.

CHAPTER VII

CAREER DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING

Career Development

66. The Commission, as the central personnel agency of the Royal Government, shall prescribe rules and procedures for career and professional development of civil servants through continuing education and training to develop capacity and maintain competency and professionalism in the Civil Service, as specified in the BCSR.

In-Service Training Need Assessment

67. The Commission shall assess the general training and higher education (degree and diploma) needs of Civil Servants, formulate projects and implement them both within and outside the country.
68. Agencies shall assess their own specific training needs, formulate appropriate plans and implement them in accordance with the procedures prescribed in the BCSR.

Training Institute

69. The Commission shall identify one or more of the existing Colleges/Institutes in the Kingdom for conducting pre-service and in-service trainings of civil servants.

Retaining Trained Civil Servants

70. The Commission shall endeavour to create conditions for the retention and career advancement of trained and highly qualified professionals in their own fields and respective agencies. To this end, it shall introduce and implement appropriate incentives and legally binding obligations as may be prescribed by the BCSR.

CHAPTER VIII

PROMOTION, PLACEMENT AND TRANSFER

Performance Evaluation

71. The Commission shall institute and oversee the implementation of a transparent, objective and fair performance evaluation system, amongst others, to reward and promote deserving civil servants.

Promotion of Civil Servants

72. The Commission shall be the authority for all fast-track and out-of-turn promotions.
73. Except for executive (EX) and specialist (ES) positions, all regular promotions, in keeping with the BCSR, shall be administered by respective agencies through human resource committees/councils with due notification to the RCSC. All promotions to executive positions must include proven leadership and positive feedbacks.
74. There shall be no retroactive promotion.

Placement of Senior Civil Servants

75. The Commission shall select and appoint all heads of autonomous agencies.
76. Selection and placement of a civil servant as a head of department shall be carried out by the RCSC in accordance with this Act and the BCSR.

Transfer

77. A Civil servant shall be subject to transfers at regular intervals. Save where otherwise expressly provided in this Act or by any other law for the time being in force, the Commission shall determine the circumstances in the BCSR, by which a civil servant may be transferred from one Agency to another for filling of a vacant post at the same level.
78. To the extent possible, transfers shall not result in the loss of professionals by an agency and appointment of such civil servants to positions where their specialized knowledge and skills are rendered irrelevant.

79. All inter-ministerial or inter-agency or inter-occupational transfers shall be carried out by the Commission whereas intra-ministerial or intra-agency or intra-occupational transfers shall be carried out by ministries and agencies themselves as per the BCSR.
80. Notwithstanding section 79, the Cabinet shall determine and approve the inter-ministry and inter-dzongkhag transfer of secretaries and dzongdags in the same positions in consultation with the Commission.

Secondment of Civil Servants

81. The secondment of civil servants to other organizations outside the Civil Service shall be administered by the Commission.

CHAPTER IX DISCIPLINARY MATTERS

Constitution and Jurisdiction of Disciplinary Committee

82. A Human Resource Committee/Council established in all Agencies shall also act as a Disciplinary Committee vested with the jurisdiction over disciplinary matters.

Powers of Disciplinary Committee

83. The Disciplinary Committee shall have, for the purposes of discharging its functions under this Act, the powers as prescribed by the BCSR.

Right to Appeal

84. A civil servant aggrieved by a decision of the Disciplinary Committee has the right to appeal to the Appellate Authority.

Conclusion of Criminal or Civil Suit not to bar Disciplinary Proceedings

85. Completion of a criminal trial or civil suit against a civil servant in a court of law shall not preclude the Disciplinary Committee from exercising jurisdiction under this Act.

CHAPTER X

SEPARATION FROM SERVICE

Retirement on Superannuation

86. A civil servant shall retire on the date of completing the superannuation age as prescribed by the BCSR, and no extension shall be permitted.

Resignation from Service

87. A civil servant may resign from service by giving the competent authority a notice in writing as prescribed by the BCSR.

Retirement Scheme

88. The Commission may introduce Early Retirement Scheme or Special Retirement Scheme to allow a civil servant to retire early on payment of such benefits as prescribed by the BCSR.

Compulsory Retirement

89. The Commission may at any time, by notice in writing, on the recommendation of agencies, require a civil servant to retire compulsorily with post service benefits from the service on such grounds as prescribed by the BCSR.
90. The services of a civil servant shall be separated from the Civil Service upon corporatization/privatization of his Agency, unless his service is required in the Civil Service.

Termination of Service

91. A civil servant shall be terminated from service if he or she is convicted by the court of law for a criminal offence of misdemeanor and above for offences related to official functions.
92. A civil servant shall be compulsorily retired from service with post service benefit if he or she is convicted by the court of law for a criminal offence of misdemeanor and above for offences not related to official functions.

CHAPTER XI

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Establishment of Civil Service Award

93. The Commission may institute a scheme for recognizing and rewarding excellent performance or outstanding contributions. The recognition may be in the form of civil service awards, honours, promotion and financial reward as may be prescribed by the Commission.

Health and Safety

94. An Agency shall maintain a safe and healthy working environment including health, safety and welfare of its civil servants as prescribed by rule and law.
95. The Commission shall endeavor to promote family values and children's welfare through appropriate measures as prescribed by rules.

Immunity from Prosecution

96. No legal proceeding or suit shall lie against any member of the Commission and the Civil Servants in respect of official duties, which is done in good faith or intended to be done pursuant to the provisions of this Act. Such immunity shall not cover corrupt acts committed by any member of the Commission or civil servants in connection with the discharge of their duties or cover other valuables in consideration to act in a particular manner.
97. The Commission shall protect a civil servant or an agency from false allegation or defamation leveled by any person or party while discharging his/her duties and responsibilities in accordance with rules and regulations.
98. A civil servant shall not be suspended or prosecuted in the court of law by any party for any act alleged to have been committed by him or her without notifying the Commission.

Establishment of Tribunal

99. An Administrative Tribunal may be established to adjudicate the civil service appeal cases.

Authoritative Text

100. The Dzongkha text shall be the authoritative text, if there exists any difference in meaning between the Dzongkha and the English text.

Amendment

101. The amendment of this Act by way of addition, variation or repeal shall be effected by a simple majority of the respective Houses or vote of no less than two thirds of the total members of Parliament present and voting on a motion submitted by one third of the members of either House, provided that the amendment does not undermine the functions and effectiveness of the Royal Civil Service Commission.
