“The Project for Human Resource Development Scholarship by Japanese Grant Aid”

The Royal Civil Service Commission (RCSC) is pleased to announce the availability of scholarships for Ph.D. in Economics under the Japanese Grant Aid for Human Resource Development Scholarship funding.

1. Eligibility:

- a. Should be a Bhutanese;
- b. Have obtained a master’s degree in the field of economics in Japan.
 In case there is not any applicant who meet this requirement, it will be considered to open the field.*
- c. Be the age of 45 or younger as of April 1st, 2019. (Born on/after April 2nd, 1973)
- d. Be a regular (permanent) government employee.
- e. Have served for twice the duration of the LTT (long-term training) to obtain the master’s degree.
- f. Have a recommendation from the supervisor of his/her current duty office. (Reference Letter should contain evaluation of applicant’s performance at work and relevance of his/her research theme to his/her career.)
- g. Have a recommendation from the expected academic advisor(s) of the applying university.
- h. Not be currently engaging in a Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)’s Technical Cooperation Projects as a main counterpart.
- i. Not have already obtained a doctoral degree.
- j. Not be currently awarded or to be awarded a scholarship from other foreign donors.
- k. Have proficiency in English, sufficiently fluent for studying in Japan. TOEFL iBT 61 (ITP 500) / IELTS 5.5 or higher is preferable.
- l. Other criteria:
 - i. In principle, enroll in the same graduate school of the university where he or she obtained a master’s degree in the field of economics since it is normally very difficult to obtain a doctoral degree within three (3) years. If it is not possible, applicants can select other university.
 - ii. Present a research proposal relevant to the economic development issues of the country.
 - iii. Be in good health both physically and mentally.
 - iv. Complete the course within, and not exceeding, three (3) years.
