Note:

- Interested candidates need to register online by visiting the test center website.
- The fee is payable through credit card or bank cheques (cash not acceptable).
- Late online registration is available with additional fee payment and it usually closes one week after the regular registration deadline (check respective test website).
- If candidates are not able to register for TOEFL & GRE within the deadline, they can still appear the test as a standby on a first-come, first-serve basis provided there is enough test material and seats. Candidates need to submit a completed registration form with payment on test day. Currency/cash is not accepted and will be returned to the test taker.
- For SAT, candidates can visit sat.org/order-resources to order and/or download the resources to help them register for and understand the benefits of SAT tests.
- Contact HRD Division, RCSC at EPABX : 322491/322954/322956 extension 107, 122 or 229 for clarification.
