

RCSC/HRD-A1.3/2021/950

15th September 2021

Masters Scholarship Programs with the Korean Development Institute (KDI) School of Public Policy and Management-Spring 2022

The Royal Civil Service Commission (RCSC) is pleased to announce the availability of scholarships to pursue Masters Programs at the Korean Development Institute (KDI) School of Public Policy and Management, the Republic of Korea, which commences from Early February 2022.

Therefore, we would like to encourage the eligible candidates from Civil Service to apply for the scholarship on or before 27th September 2021.

1. Program offered:

- a. Master of Public Policy
- b. Master of Development Policy
- c. Master of Public Management

2. Eligibility Criteria:

- a. Must be in Administrative Service as per Superstructure;
- b. Must not have Masters Degree; and
- c. Must fulfill the long term training eligibility criteria prescribed as per BCSR 2018

3. Application Procedure and deadline:

- Eligible candidates must visit the link to complete the online application.
(https://www.kdischool.ac.kr/#/admissions/cp/international/application_guideline#top)
- Refer Application Procedure (click here)

For details and any queries, kindly visit the University website <http://admissions.kdischool.ac.kr/> or contact at Email: internationaladmissions@kdis.ac.kr or internationaladmissions2@kdis.ac.kr

Kindly note that the Colombo Plan Secretariat will bear the cost of return economy class air tickets while KDI School will provide the admission fees, tuition, accommodation, and living stipends.

For general queries kindly contact Human Resource Officer, RCSC at 02-322491/322956 (Ext-129) during office hours.