

The RCSC would like to notify the interested candidates that the Erasmus Mundus scholarship for economic policies for the global transition is now open. Economic Policies for the Global transition \(EPOG+\) is an Erasmus Mundus Joint Master Degree in economics, supported by the European Union. It offers a world-class integrated Master's program on the (digital, socioeconomic, ecological) transition processes with a pluralist approach and interdisciplinary perspectives.

The main objective of the program is to give birth to a new generation of international experts, able to define and assess economic policies and evolve within different political, social and regional contexts. Towards this objective, the EPOG+ Master's program goes beyond the reach of standard economic theory to include various heterodox/institutionalist political economy approaches.

CLICK HERE TO APPLY

Application deadline: January 31, 2022 at 13:00 (Paris time).

Note that two recommendation letters are needed to apply and have to be provided by the deadline. The course for the new cohort will start in September 2022. For more information:

<https://www.eap.unito.it/do/home.pl> - www.epog.eu

Course outcomes

Graduates who choose this Master Degree Program will be prepared to perform the following functions:

- Economic analysis, innovation and development policies, planning;
- Implementation and evaluation of innovation and development policies both national and international;
- Analysis and formulation of business management strategies with particular reference to innovation policies and development on an international level

Participating Universities

The full partners (degree awarding institutions) include a wide set of prestigious institutions:

1. University of technology of Compiègne (UTC),
2. Sorbonne University,
3. University of Paris,
4. University of Turin,
5. Berlin School of Economics and Law,
6. University of Rome 3,
7. Vienna University of Economics and Business,

8. University of the Witwatersrand (Wits).

It also involves more than 30 (academic and non-academic) associated partners in Europe and the world.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The very best students from all over the world will be eligible for scholarships awarded for 2 years by the European Commission, based on our selection:

- The « Programme countries » scholarships for students from Member States of the European Union (EU) as well as Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Republic of North Macedonia, Serbia, Turkey, United Kingdom.
- The « Partner countries » scholarships for students from all the other countries.

For more details click here

In addition to the above, the interested civil servants must fulfill eligibility requirements prescribed in the BCSR 2018 and those from non civil service sectors should fulfill service rules of the MoHR

FAQ — Frequently Asked Questions: <https://www.epog.eu/admission-and-scholarships/faq/>