MEIG Programme 2024

The Royal Civil Service Commission is pleased to announce the availability of scholarships for eligible civil servants to pursue Masters of Advanced Studies in European and International Governance (MEIG Programme) at the University of Geneva, Switzerland under both full and partial scholarship.

Sl. No.	Course	Target Group
1	Masters of Advanced Studies in European and International Governance	Administrative Service

The interested and eligible in-service candidates under aforementioned target group can apply for the above scholarship within or not later than November 15, 2023. You are asked to fill in both the forms even if you want to apply for full or partial scholarship. However, candidates applying for the programme need to get permission from their respective agencies on their study plan and must fulfill the eligibility criteria as per BCSR 2018.

Application procedures and useful information

1. The application in prescribed application form (Click here for the form) must be sent to meig@unige.ch
2. The separate application must be submitted for availing scholarship to pursue the programme (Click here for scholarship form). It must be sent to the same email address.
