MBBS slots in General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University (KDU)
Sri Lanka

The Royal Civil Service Commission is pleased to inform the availability of 15 slots to pursue Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBBS) at General Sir John Kotelawala Defence University (KDU) for the academic year 2024-2025. These slots are offered under the Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) signed with KDU. However, candidates admitted under this program will be responsible for covering the tuition fees, travel expenses, and living expenses.

As such, the 2023 BHSEC (Class XII) cohort of students who have attained a minimum of 65% in Physics, Chemistry, and Biology, with at least 55% in English, are eligible to apply for the slot. Repeaters and individuals who have already been selected for scholarships are ineligible. The selection of candidates will be based on merit ranking.

Therefore, eligible candidates may submit the application in hardcopy to the Human Resource Development Division(HRDD), RCSC on or before 30-Mar-2024 with following documents:

1. Class XII mark sheet and certificate
2. Class X mark sheet and pass certificate
3. Migration certificate
4. English Language Proficiency Certificate
5. Medical fitness certificate
6. Copy of Bhutanese Citizenship Card
